HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

SATURDAY, December 9, 1916.

The House met at 12 o'clock noon.

The Chaplain, Rev. Henry N. Couden, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Grant us, O most merciful Father, a keener insight into and a broader conception of the things eternal, that we may be inspired to do the work Thou hast given us to do now with patience, endurance, and efficiency, and be prepared to meet the changes in the things temporal with perfect faith and confidence in the overruling of Thy providence for the good of mankind. Our hearts are profoundly touched by the sudden and unexpected death of a Member of this body. Comfort his colleagues and friends, especially the bereaved wife and children, with the precious promises of the immortality of the soul, that they may look forward with bright anticipations to a reunion in the realm where sorrows never enter and where the continuity of life is not broken, but flows on to larger and nobler existence. And all praise shall be Thine, in the spirit of Him, who said, "I am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth on me shall never die." Amen.

THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS.

Mr. ADAMSON. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Tennessee [Mr. GARRETT] has asked me to yield to him for a moment for some purpose.

Mr. GARRETT. Mr. Speaker, in the year 1910 the Hon. Jacob M. Dickinson, then Secretary of War, made an official trip to the Philippine Islands, and during his journey there he made a number of addresses that I think would be of considerable historic interest. They have not been printed, and I desire to ask unanimous consent to have them printed as a document.

Mr. MILLER of Minnesota. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, will the gentleman include in that document the report of Mr. Dickinson that he made upon his return, covering the Philippine Islands situation?

Mr. GARRETT. The report was printed.

Mr. MILLER of Minnesota. Yes; but not as a document. It was printed as all reports of the Secretary of War are printed. It has never been available as a document. It seems to me pertinent to have the report printed in the same document with the addresses to which the gentleman from Tennessee refers.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Tennessee withdraws his request. The gentleman from Georgia [Mr. ADAMSON] is recognized.

SENATE.

MONDAY, December 11, 1916.

Rev. Edward King Hardin, of the city of Washington, offered the following prayer:

Our heavenly Father, we pause before the beginning of the work of this day and of this new week to humbly ask that Thy blessing may rest upon us and that we may have the Divine guidance that we so much need. We thank Thee, O Lord, for the privilege of work. We thank Thee that Thou dost give to us the inestimable privilege of becoming coworkers with Thyself in the carrying out and fulfilling of this great task. We remember that it is written in Thy word, "The eyes of Jehovah run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show Himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward Him." May we fulfill this condition and with clear heads and strong hearts be ready to do the work that God has for us to do, and may we ever by Thy help trust in God and do the right. In Christ's name, we ask it. Amen.

The Journal of the proceedings of Friday was read and approved.
